Data Collection Partnerships approach

- ❖ Bilingual, bicultural staff from partner agencies
- ❖ Training and on-going technical support from Public Health
- ❖ Spirit of problem-solving and mutual respect for partners' expertise and skills

Social support themes

- ◆ Where do people find social support?
- ◆ "Socializing is a beautiful thing"
- ◆ Isolation, lack of support, and stress
- ◆ Immigrants' experiences of support

Neighborhood Social Cohesion themes

- ❖ What is it like to live in your neighborhood?
- ❖ "People of many origins": Shared neighborhoods
- ❖ "Nobody knows anybody": What keeps neighbors apart?
- ❖ "A smile is worth a thousand words": Developing a sense of community

Data Collection Partnerships: Summary

- ❖ Qualitative methods as complementary
 - ❖ Inclusion of perspectives otherwise missed
 - ❖ Quotations add words to the numbers
- ❖ Findings can inform the next phase of data collection
